

Explanatory notes:

- 1) Article 87 states that "for the purposes of these Rules of Procedure, it shall be understood that the phrase Member States present and voting refers to the Member States casting an affirmative or negative vote. Member States which abstain from voting shall be considered as "not voting".
- 2) For all votes on procedural motions and for the adoption (approval) of a Draft Resolution, the required majority (simple or two-thirds) will be calculated on the Member States (Delegations) present and voting.
- 3) When a Delegation moves in to a procedural motion, the Bureau (Dias) will ask if a Delegation seconds the motion. In case no Delegation supports it, it will be automatically discarded.
- 4) Before voting on a procedural motion, the Bureau (Dias) will verify if there is consensus on the motion asking if any Delegation opposes the motion. If no Delegation objects, the motion will automatically pass.
- 5) Any reference in the Rules of Procedure to a male person shall be deemed also to constitute a reference to a female person unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.
